

Application for reduction of fairway dues

The Swedish Maritime Administration is a governmental agency and is partly financed by fairway dues on merchant shipping. As a part of the Swedish Maritime Administration's fee model, reductions can be granted for fairway dues for goods in transit through reimbursement. Conditions that needs to be met for the reduction to be refunded are found in the Code of Statutes, the regulations on fairway dues, SJÖFS 2024:1.

This form should be used when applying for a reimbursement of fairway dues for goods in transit.

Please, send your application to: sjofartsverket@sjofartsverket.se or Sjöfartsverket, 601 78 Norrköping

For reimbursement in accordance with Section 19, the application must also contain information on;

1. Unloaded and loaded goods in transit in tonnes per vessel.
2. Date of unloading and loading of goods in transit.
3. Declaration reference and/or invoice number for the fairway dues paid.

Fee exemptions for goods in transit

Section 19 Loaded transit cargo is exempted from cargo-based fairway fees. The dues paid will be reimbursed after an application in accordance with Section 21. A condition for reimbursement is that fairway fees have been paid for both the loaded and the unloaded cargo.

Application for reductions and exemptions

Section 21 Fee reductions and fee exemptions pursuant to Section 19 is reimbursed after an application for a refund has been received by and granted by the Swedish Maritime Administration.

The application must be filed quarterly and cover three months. It must be submitted to the Swedish Maritime Administration no later than the 15th of the month following a completed quarter, i.e., April, July, October, and January. The application must be made using the designated form, unless the Swedish Maritime Administration decides otherwise.

One condition for reimbursement is that the documents verifying the right to fee exemption or fee reduction on fairway fees is kept continually available for audit by the Swedish Maritime Administration. If there are any changes to transport arrangements that are eligible for reimbursement, the changes must be notified to the Swedish Maritime Administration as soon as possible.
